

Does the BRWP have any authority or enforcement powers?

The BRWP can only encourage recommended actions, promote best management practices and suggest solutions and consequences to watershed issues. The BRWP has no special authority, powers or enforcement provisions within the Blanchard River watershed. The Partnership prefers to cooperate with landowners on long-term solutions and educating the public about their water quality.